

Amherst County 4-H Clubs

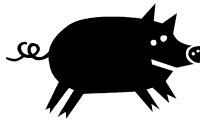

Horse Clubs:

Blue Ridge Caballeros (BRC) & Fencetoppers

Both clubs have youth members aged 9-19 years. You do NOT have to own a horse to be a member of either club. Both clubs compete in local and district horse shows. Members from both clubs also compete in the Virginia State 4-H Horse Show each year, as well as in Hippology contests and Horse Bowl contests.

Amherst/Nelson 4-H Livestock Club:

Open to residents of both counties, this club works toward showing and selling livestock at the Central Virginia Livestock Show and Sale in May. Members do NOT have to raise livestock to join the club, but can learn more about animals such as heifers, steers, pigs, goats and lambs. Ages 9-19yrs.

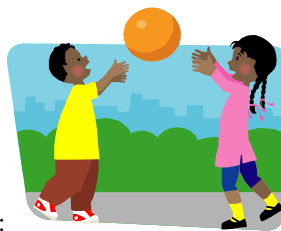

Amherst County 4-H Teen Club:

Members of this club are 14 to 19 years old. They learn leadership skills and how to work together cooperatively as a team. This club meets several times per year to work toward developing skills to become effective Teen Counselors at 4-H Camps. Members have opportunities to visit VA Tech Campus – site of Virginia 4-H Headquarters.

Izaak Walton League of Lynchburg 4-H Shooting Education Club:

This club meets at different places, including Coolwell Community Center and Izaak Walton Park. The main focus of this club is to teach responsible handling of any firearm, including safety, cleaning, and proper storage. This club is lead by several qualified, trained instructors and works with BB, air rifle, air pistol, .22 rifle, shotgun and archery. The club competes in several 4-H sponsored shooting events each year. Ages 9-19 yrs.

Amherst County 4-H Cloverbud Club:

This club is for youth aged 5-8 years and is a pre-4-H club. Kids will explore things like animals in Amherst Co., farms, gardening, and other nature-related topics. They will also discuss safety, and take a few field trips in the local area.

If you are interested in learning more about any of these 4-H clubs, please call the Amherst Extension Office at 946-9365. Or, you may complete this form and mail to: Amherst County 4-H, 100 Goodwin Street, P.O. Box 580, Amherst, VA. 24521.
